Creekside Annupuri Villa

Space is abundant in Creekside, a solid four bedroom cedar vacation home complete with kids' rumpus room, built in 2005 and renovated in 2011. This impressive home stands proudly on a beautifully landscaped 1,875 square meter section of Annupuri Village, which features a rustic stone wall and scenic mature trees. Occupying a prominent position on the access road to Annupuri Ski Resort, Creekside has proven popular as rental accommodation in both the winter and summer months.

The home is in immaculate condition and is comprised of a beautiful living and kitchen area with a stone fireplace, four large double bedrooms, three bathrooms, laundry facilities and an expansive basement / games / media room for the children. This property has recently undergone an interior remodeling that resulted in the bathrooms being tiled and the fourth bedroom added upstairs.
