Taki - Annupuri Chalets

Taki, named for the quaint waterfall visible from the living room, features three spacious bedrooms, including a traditional and versatile Japanese tatami room, and a generous dry room. The well-equipped and open-plan kitchen with a large square dining bar is the perfect place to share the culinary delights of Hokkaido with your friends and family, while the roomy living area provides plenty of space to unwind and share your day's adventures. The two loft areas offer an alternative space for privacy or an area for your children to play.

When the snow melts and the flowers begin to bloom, take a stroll down the garden steps to your private patio and take in the serene sight and sound of running water. This is the only property for sale in Niseko with its own private waterfall.

Set on a generous 2,314 sqm of land, Taki is sufficiently secluded from the neighbours yet conveniently close to the ski resorts of Annupuri, Moiwai and Niseko Village.
